THE ENGLISH LOSS

At Modder River—73 Killed and 365 Wounded.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Dec. 2—The war office today gave out an official list of the British losses at Modder river. Seventy-three were killed and 365 wounded. This comparatively small number created wide astonishment. The loss was only about five per cent. Some military men are inclined to think the Boer losses were very heavy, on account of Methuen's dispatch stating it was the bloodiest fight of the century. Methuen is rebuilding the bridge. His wound is slight. Large numbers of reinforcements are reaching him.

NEWS FROM BULLER.

London, Dec. 2—It was stated at the war office today that dispatches from Buller have been received but they have not been issued to the press. It was incidentally mentioned that a rank and file list of the casualties at Modder River has not yet been received. Nothing in regard to the forward movement to Natal has been received later than of date of Nov 26, when the Boers held both the railway and the wagon bridge to Colenso and were able to destroy them whenever they wished.

SOME ARE CONVALESCENT.

The Condition of the Sick at the Normal College.

THE REPORT OF DR. ANDERSON.

"Intestinal Bacilli" Present in the Wells—Imperfect Sewerage is the Cause.

There is an improvement in the condition of the sick girls at the State Normal and Industrial College today, and several of the patients are convalescent and will be able to return to their homes within a few days.

DR. ANDERSON'S REPORT.

The full written report of Dr. Albert Anderson, who made the bacteriological examination of the drinking water from the wells at the college, was received by Dr. McIver last night.

Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Raleigh, secretary of the state board of health, also received a copy of the report, and will issue a formal statement tonight giving the results of the analyses of the samples of the water and also the investigations made by himself at the college.

Dr. Anderson's report exposes the deplorable condition of the water, which is most probably the real cause of the outbreak of typhoid fever at the Normal.

In his report Dr. Anderson says that "intestinal bacilli" were present in large quantities in the samples from two wells.

The presence of these bacilli in the wells necessarily came from human sewerage, so Dr. Lewis stated to a Raleigh Post reporter last night. It is to be presumed the imperfect sewerage connections are responsible for the deplorable condition of the water, though the board of directors will have another meeting in a few days and will then make known the real cause or causes of the outbreak.

The two wells which contained the deadly germs were not closely related to each other. One is across the street, at the Teague dormitory, and the other is the central well in the open space between the main building and the dining room.

The sewer with the terra cotta pipe, which was so imperfectly connected, was one hundred and twenty-five feet from the central well. There is a sewer pipe within fifteen or twenty feet of the Teague well, but it was not found to be defective upon examination.

Dr. Lewis expressed it as his opinion, after reading the report of Dr. Anderson, that the outbreak of typhoid fever at the Normal resulted from the presence of "intestinal bacilli" in the wells at the college.

Dr. Lewis, as secretary of the state board of health, has recommended that the wells be filled at once.

DR. BLOUNT TALKS.

A Telegram representative had a talk this morning with Dr. John G. Blount, of Washington, N. C., who has been at the college since before the suspension, and in regard to the outbreak of fever at the college, he made the following statement:

"As one who has been on the inside, yet unbiased, it affords me pleasure to state that the college was with wonderful quickness and dispatch converted into a hospital. The cases were at once concentrated and have received the proper amount of nursing and medical attention, For the thirty-five cases coming under Dr. McIver's immediate supervision twenty trained nurses were supplied, and in addition the teachers and members of the senior class and other students quickly organized into a relief squad and have rendered valuable service. The nursing has been ample and quite as much as the young ladies would have received in any hospital. The report that there is insufficient medical attention is, in my opinion, without foundation in fact and the physicians in charge have labored intelligently and without ceasing in behalf of the young ladies and have given them all the attention necessary, and indeed quite as much attention as they would have received in a hospital. In a school with four hundred and fifty (450) pupils, its immediate conversion into a hospital is a herculanean task and I cannot conceive how the situation could have been more quickly or effectively met. I have been present during the entire outbreak and know personally that everything possible has been done.'

Card Party.

An enjoyable card party, complimentary to Misses Sallie and Mary Bernard, of Petersburg, Va., was given last night by Mr. and Mrs Thomas Bernard, at their beautiful home on Asheboro street. The game of the evening was progressive euchre, and the lady's prize was won by Miss Sallie Bernard, while Mr. I E. Avery was awarded the gentleman's prize. Choice refreshments were served at 10 o'clock. Those who attended were: Misses Horrey, Lizzie Leigh Dick, Frances O'Brien, and Sallie and Mary Meade Bernard W. T Pome, R. P. Gray, I. E. Avery, R D. Douglas, Horrey, and H C. Bergen.

We are told that J. J. Lindsey, who is well known here, having been proprietor of the Jarrell Hotel at one time, will wed one of Monroe's fair daughters this month. Mr. Lindsay is at present running the Gloucester Hotel at Monroe.

HEAD SEVERED FROM BODY.

An Unknown White Man Killed at Charlotte Last Night.

Another frightful catastrophe occurred in one of the railroad yards—the Southern—last night. An unknown white man was run over by the train and instantly killed. His head was severed from his body; his legs and one arm were cut off. It is not known how the frightful accident occurred. About eleven o'clock freight train No. 56 pulled through the yard and it was this train which ran over the man. The accident occurred between First and Second streets near the rock quarry. It is very dark at that spot, and muddy. Conductor Tom Reeves was first to reach the man after the train had passed over him. The sight which was revealed by his lantern was sickening.

The railroad authorities and police were notified. The man was unknown to any one, but the police thought that he lived near here His clothes were very muddy as if he had fallen in the mud before being struck by the train. Apparently he was a man of 28 or 30. His pockets were not examined, nor was he touched in any way, being left as he was found, pending directions from the railroad authorities —Observer.

MAYOR TAYLOR'S COURT.

He Sends Seventeen to Court—'Squire Glascock Sends Four.

There was a full docket at the mayor's court yesterday evening and Mayor Taylor disposed of about twenty cases for retailing. There were three acquittals and His Honor sent seventeen to superior court. The three cases against E. G. Newcomb were continued until Monday, as was one against Wesley Smith. Against some of the defendents there were two or three cases. After the mayor had finished with his cases, 'Squire Glascock heard five cases and bound four of the defendents over to court. He also had a case against Wesley Smith which was continued until Monday. Following is a list of those tried:

Mamie Smith and Essie Erwin, white; John Bethel, Willis Pool, Jas. Holland, Robert Dancy, Reuben and Preston Cole, Henry Barringer, James Coffey, Jennie Murray, Giles Ingram, George Green and Lydia Thompson, all colored.

MR. BAILEY OF TEXAS

Will Have a Very Strong Following in the Next Congress.

YET HE HAS MANY ENEMIES

In the Democratic Party—The Reason Why He Wont Allow His Name to go Before the Caucus.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, Dec. 2—It is apparent that during the coming session of congress, Bailey of Texas will have a very large following. Although the Texas member may not be formally acknowledged by the majority of the democracy in the house of representatives, nor by Speaker Henderson, as the democratic leader, yet he will have much influence in shaping legislation, and the policy of his party in the lower branch of congress. The following of Bailey comes from every section, and they look upon him as a wise and sagacious leader. At the democratic caucus there is a sentiment in favor of Bailey.

With all his following, however, Bailey has many enemies in the democratic party, who have long desired his overthrow from the counsels of the party. In the last congress this element persistently refused to follow the leadership of the Texas representative, and allied themselves with Richardson of Tennessee, McMillan, De Armond and others, and it was very seldom that the party in the house was able to present a solid front. This was naturally embarrasing to Bailey, who was always recognized by Speaker Reed as the acknowledged democratic leader. For these reasons he withdrew as the leader, and has steadfastly refused to allow his name this session to go before the democratic caucus as candidate for the democratic leadership.

Friends of Bailey say that no matter whom the party may select as its leader this session, the time is not far distant when the democracy in the house will again look to him, who is an acknowledged parliamentarian, probably the best man in the house, to extricate the party from its dilemmas.

When the two houses of congress are called together at noon Monday, there will be a full attendance of members in both the house and senate Nearly all of the members had arrived in the city by Friday night. All the members seem interested in the work of the session, and the indications point to a business-like session. Of course, as this session will be followed by the presidential campaign, much of the session will be occupied by political speeches on the part of the rank and file on both sides of the house. Many republicans believe that the less done in the way of legislation the better it will be for their party.

The president's message this year does not seem to be attracting near so much attention on the part of the members as in former years. It is believed that the message will be merely a continuance of the historical data given the public last year. Many of the recommendations, which were unacted on by congress last year, will be repeated in the message to be read next Tuesday.

As has been the custom for many years the message to congress will be delivered to both houses by Secretary Pruden, one of the oldest officials at the executive mansion. Pruden bears a strong resemblance to President McKinley, and is popular with the senators and representatives. He always bears to the senate during the session the presidential nominations which are submitted for confirmation.

Mr. H. H. Childers, the assistant corporation counsel for New York city, is in Washington. Mr. Childers formerly lived in Texas, but removed to New York city about three years ago. He is here for the purpose of helping Congressman Sulzer in his contest for the democratic nomination for speaker of the house of representatives.

General Walker, of Virginia, who is contesting for the seat of Judge Rhea, democrat, is in the city. The general is confident that he will be seated by the house when his case comes before congress for settlement.

One week from Monday there will be a banquet to be tendered the Virginia delegation in congress. With the exception of Virginians there will be no other guests present. It is expected covers will be laid for about seventy Virginia people The banquet is to be given at the Metropolitan Hotel under the auspices of the Virginia Democratic Association.

LET'S PRESS ONWARD.

The Importance of Universal Education in North Carolina.

Correspondence Telegram.

Mr. Editor:—I noted a letter in the Raleigh News and Observer, by Prof. Martin H. Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute, headed, "Why Boston Leads," in the line of education. Among other things he says:

"Seeing the large number of great schools, built upon the basis of a splendid public school system, we no longer wonder at their great superiority over us educationally and commercially. All over the city stand monuments to help keep alive the traditions; in song and story, of those who made the first armed resistance to King George III.

"I would that every son and daughter of our dear Old North State could drink deep the inspiration that comes from such sacred surroundings. It was Mr Beecher who said fifty years ago: 'We must educate, or we must perish.'

"This is what our state must do, or Massachusetts and other states will continue to produce the poets, the philosophers, the painters and the sculptors.

"Let us press on until the spirit of our people is inspired and uplifted by the power of universal education, and then the history of our state will be written, due homage paid to her great heroes whose names will be perpetuated on canvas, and in bronze and marble."

How true it is that our Old North State is allowing herself to drift behind in an educational line. How very heedless we are about her history. She has sent her share of noble heroes out into the world, her share of men and women in the world of letters; but how little homage is paid them by the sons and daughters of his state.

Other states erect monuments to their heroes, write up the surroundings of their poets and writers and statesmen. It is a sad fact that North Carlina seems to be satisfied to let their names die away.

It is another fact, and this time a pleasing one, that our public-minded educators are alive to the importance of universal education. That practical efforts are being made to extend the benefits of mental culture to the masses of men, and inspire them with the nobler thoughts and motives which culture brings.

There is a growing feeling that education must be generally diffused among the people, if the American experiment is to succeed. There never was a time when the people of our state needed that breadth of mind that comes from well directed education, as the present. The problems which will confront the people in the future, which in fact are now before them, cannot be solved by ignorant men.

These problems are of vital importance to the perpetuity of our government and to the highest welfare of society, and must be dealt with intelligently.

Hence it is exceedingly desirable to spread education as widely as possible, and to make use of every agency to accomplish that purpose. At present we have some very good colleges and schools; but the general cry must be for more. More colleges, more schools, more libraries, more education.

Again, think of the potency of education to uplift the people to a higher conception of life. Knowledge can no longer be kept under lock and key for the favored few who can afford to buy an entrance to its portals; it must be dragged forth and hurled broadcast to all who care to gather it in. And our public-spirited people should make it their duty to see that every way is opened to this goal.

Each should start in with an intrepidity nothing can daunt, to form a compact to accomplish this purpose. And by converging together will consecutively overcome every obstacle in the way.

It is heterogeneous to the thoughtful to suppose that while other states are steadily pressing to the front in this line, we should be so inadequately armed to hold our own with them. Our contemporaries are marching steadily ahead of us and are omnivorous in their strides. Shall we allow them all the glory? We should make giant strides toward amelioration.

We must rid ourselves of the fallacy that we can take our own time to accomplish this purpose; we must wake up more and more to the fact that there is no time like the present. And we must be vociferous in our demands for a thorough educational basis; until the whole state will be ambient with a line of schools, libraries and colleges.

When that time comes our ancient traditions will be unearthed, our heroes' names be praised in story and song, our writers will be honored, our statesmen receive due homage. Then North Carolina will be sending out her own scientists, artists, sculptors and poets, out into the world to win her renown and glory, equal to that which the state of Massachusetts and others enjoy today.

THE NORMAL SITUATION.

It is most gratifying to the thousands of friends all over the state of the Normal and Industrial College that the location of the cause of the deplorable outbreak of fever in the institution has been determined by expert investigation and that these causes will be treated in the proper and effectual manner, eliminating all danger of future contagion, looking to the reopening of the college the first of the incoming year. And there is an abundance of reassurance in the timely expression of satisfaction directed to President McIver and his co-assistants, from the parents and friends of the patients who have died, at the tender and sympathetic manner in which the lamented ones were looked after dnring their illnesses at the college.

President McIver has been the target of some unwise criticism from people who have not taken the pains to look into the situation with the careful eye, but the expression from the sources mentioned above, whose most absorbing interest in the matter cannot be questioned, should completely exonorate him from any personal blame. We doubt not that he has managed the affair better than many another conscientious man would have managed it, realizing the crushing responsibility upon his shoulders. He has certainly occupied an embarrassing position since the epidemic broke out, but has nobly sustained the personal, professional and official character which ranks him with the leading educationalists—not only of North Carolina—of the south.

As is noted in our news columns today, the situation at the Normal continues to improve. It is earnestly hoped that a kind Providence may watch over these young ladies who are still upon the bed of suffering, and that they may be restored to their wonted health. The deepest sympathy of the whole state goes out to them. And it is also hoped that those who have impatiently expressed themselves on this calamity will not be hasty to bestow blame and censure where in all probability it does not belong, but will leave the whole matter in the hands of the experts who are managing it and who, it may not be doubted, will manage it with entire justice to all parties concerned.

The Philippine army in the Island of Luzon is broken, and its shattered ranks have dwindled into roving bands of guerillas. These, while affording no danger to the American army, must necessitate the maintenance of effective garrisons at every important point in the country, probably for many months to come, and when the leaders shall have had time and opportunity to recuperate and re-organize, the trouble will commence again. Aguinaldo is not yet captured and keeps in communication with his followers, and unless the Americans keep at the heels of the frustrated Filipinos they will quickly be on a war footing again as past experiences have proved. They have very great rallying qualities.

A pretty, attractive Christmas ad at this time, when the public is open to the best inducements before purchasing their holiday goods, should bring in the investor pleasing returns. The Telegram offers a splendid medium by which the merchant can tell of his wares to every fireside in the city, besides abroad. If you put it in the Telegram, they'll see it.

Commenting on the suggestion that the democratic presidential ticket read "Bryan and Hogg," the Winston Sentinel pungently asks:

"How would it do to match against it, on the republican side: 'McKinley and Root'? Then there would be injected into the campaign a 'root hog or die' vim."

EWART IN WASHINGTON.

He Expects the Judge to Nominate Him for Judge Again.

Washington, Dec. 1—Judge Ewart arrived here today, and will remain until Monday. He will hold court at Charlotte Tuesday He expects the president to again send his name to the senate, and his friends say he is not likely to again meet with such bitter opposition. Even if his name is not again sent in and the president does not send in another name, Judge Ewart, under his present commission, will retain his place until congress adjourns next summer.

The Poet Burns,

Not the least of the advantages attending life assurance is the serenity of mind which attends the provident man lying on a bed of sickness, or when he is in prospect of death—so unlike that painful anxiety for the future welfare of the family not provided for. The poet Burns, in writing to a friend a few days before his death, said that he was "still the victim of affliction. Alas! Clark, I begin to fear the worst. Burns' poor widow and a half a dozen of his dear little ones, helpless orphans; there, I am weak as a woman's tear. Enough of this, 'tis half of my disease!"

"If you would escape the rock upon which the lamented Burns split;" take shelter from the storm that is bound to spend its fury upon you when the fatal summons comes, by at once securing the magnetic contract offered by the Provident Savings.

A SURE CURE FOR CROUP.

Twenty-five Years' Constant Use Without a Failure.

The first indication of croup is hoarseness, and in a child subject to that disease it may be taken as a sure sign of the approach of an attack. Following this hoarseness is a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is used in many thousands of homes in this broad land and never disappoints the anxious mothers. We have yet to learn of a single instance in which it has not proved effectual. No other preparation can show such a record—twenty-five years' constant use without a failure. For sale by C E Holton, druggist.

Women Census-Takers.

New York, Dec. 1—Mrs. Lillie Devereaux Blake says women will be employed as census enumerators and clerks. Many will apply for places.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham, of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she could not live till morning" writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night. "All thought she must soon die from Pneumonia, but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, saying it had more than once saved her life, and had cured her of consumption. After three small doses she slept easily all night, and its further use completely cured her." This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Fire in Virginia.

Cape Charles, Va., Dec. 1—The entire business part of Onancock, Accomac county, was burned early this morning. Loss $100,000. Insurance, $25,000.

Son of an Ohio Merchant Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea.

My son has been troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea. Sometime ago I persuaded him to take some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After using two bottles of the 25-cent size he was cured. I give this testimonial, hoping some one similarly afflicted may read it and be benefited.—Thomas B. Bower, Glencoe, O. For sale by O. E. Gaining a Wide Reputation.

As a cure for rheumatism Chamberlain's Pain Balm is gaining a wide reputation. D. B. Johnston, of Richmond, Ind., has been troubled with that ailment since 1862. In speaking of it he says: "I never found anything that would relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It acts like magic with me: My foot was swollen and pained me very much, but one good application of Pain Balm relieved me. For sale by O E Holton, druggist.

"You are a mean, spiteful thing!" she exclaimed. The other girl smiled derisively. "I wish"—she was racking her brain to think of an awful revenge—"I wish I were a dentist, and you had to come to me to get your teeth extracted."

A Frightful Blunder

Will often cause a horrible burn, scald, cut or bruise. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, will kill the pain and promptly heal it. Cures old sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, felons, corns, all skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Only 25 cts. a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Uncle Henry—"And did you enjoy Thanksgiving?" Little Willie—"You bet" Uncle Henry—"What were you thankful for?" Little Willie—"That I wasn't a turkey."

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for sick and nervous headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

When a young man takes a girl to a football game and goes to the trouble of explaining all the points to her, you can begin to sniff for orange blossoms.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter, nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

The football hero will now kindly step down from his pedestal.

C. E. Holton, druggist, guarantees every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to any one who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

WANTS TO COME HOME.

Our Consul at Pretoria Asks to Be Relieved From Duty.

Washington, D. C, Dec 1—Macrum, United States consul at Pretoria, charged with the care of British interests in the Transvaal, has notified the State Department that he has not received any dispatches from the department since he cabled his request, two weeks ago, to be relieved from duty and to have permission to come to Washington. The request of Macrum was promptly answered by the State Department. The fact that the department's dispatch was not delivered to the consul indicates that official messages of the United States are being tampered with. Macrum's original request and the dispatch from him just received were sent in cipher, but the answer from the department was written in plain English in order to insure its delivery, the Boers having shown that they were suspicious of cipher dispatches from and to the United States government.

The State Department is powerless in the matter, and all it can do and has done is to repeat to Macrum the message which he did not receive, declining to grant his request for the reason that his services are urgently needed in Pretoria.

Macrum said in his message just received that his presence in Washington was necessary, but he did not give any reasons for that statement. His vice-consul, a native of the Netherlands, of the name of Von Ameringen, had joined the Boer army, but a Mr. Atterbury, an American, was competent to serve as acting consul during Macrum's absence.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

BOONE, IOWA, Dec. 14.
No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.
MRS. GRACE LAMPHERE.

McELREE'S
Wine of Cardui

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the feminine organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day for the cure of "female troubles".

PASTOR UNDER HOT FIRE.

Conference to Investigate Alleged Love Affairs.

Chester, Pa., Dec. 1—At a special meeting, which was called today by the members of the Methodist Protestant church of this city, it was decided to let the charges preferred against the pastor, Rev. Charles Mitchell, go before the next conference for decision.

Pastor Mitchell is charged with paying attentions to a young woman of his flock while he has a wife who lives in Camden, N. J. The pastor denies the latter charge, but admits the former. He says he is trying to procure a divorce from his former wife, as they could never agree.

The pastor, it is also said, has enjoyed hugs and kisses with young parishioners, who supposed him to be a single man.

When these charges were first made a committee of church officials were sent to his former home to investigate, and upon their return to this city they reported in his favor.

Mr. Mitchell alleges that two members who were expelled from his church for improper conduct are responsible for the whole trouble, and he proposes to fight the matter to a finish.

ADDRESS OF WARNING

In Regard to the Outbreak of Smallpox at Terra Cotta.

North Carolina, Guilford county.

Whereas, it has come to the knowledge of the authorities of Guilford county that there is an epidemic of smallpox at Terra Cotta Works in said county, and whereas, it is made the duty of said authorities to warn all citizens of the county and persons generally of the said epidemic and to urge upon all persons the importance of immediate vaccination in order that a scourge of that disease may be averted,

Now therefore, we the board of county commissioners and county superintendent of health of said county most earnestly urge upon all persons the wisdom and the duty of being vaccinated at once. Should the disease spread and the people neglect this warning and request, it may become necessary for us in compliance with law, and in order to prevent a devastating epidemic of this terrible disease, to order compulsory vaccination.

All persons who are unable to pay the expenses of vaccination, will be vaccinated free by the county.

Pianos Two Car Loads Pianos

At Prices To Suit any Pocket-BOOK.

You have had sales and sales, in the different lines, in Greensboro, but never a SALE OF PIANOS equal to the one in progress at 217 S. Elm St. Those who have waited to buy Pianos will simply step in on the ground floor and shut off every dollar of expense and profits usually added to the first cost of an instrument---in fact buy them as cheaply as the agent or dealer and save enough money thereby to educate their families in music. Beginning this morning we are offering 30 pianos, (about two car loads) THE BEST, THE MEDIUM and THE CHEAP at prices that will interest the conservative buyer.

From the Maker
To The Buyer
At One Profit!

We sell as cheap as others buy.

If you would be convinced drop in and see us. We will not "bore" you to take them--if you don't, some one else will; they will all go, and quickly.

It is strange how much business can be done when one sets out to do it. With the right pianos at the right price, it is easily accomplished. Each and every piano is bran new and direct from our factories. They are fully warranted for five to eight years. Each shall prove just as represented, or no sale. They are marked in plain figures. Only the factory prices will be asked. No less accepted. A child can buy here as cheaply as the closest buyer in the city. The prices quoted are the cash prices, but those who would like to pay monthly, can do so at the same price by simply paying 6 per cent interest.

We sell from 30 to 50 pianos direct from the factory every month in the year, and can refer you to thousands of customers all over the United States who have saved all the way from $100 to $300 by purchasing direct from the factory, at our Special Sales. We do not employ salesmen or canvassers, pay no commissions, no collectors are employed, there are no middlemen's profits. In fact, we shut out all the expense added to the cost of an instrument when sold in the usual way and give our customers the benefit.

The large assortment shipped here for this sale must be sold inside of TEN Days. We can't stay any longer, and the company says "sell 'em!" That means, prices that will clean this wareroom out in ten days. They are marked as follows:

$225 Pianos, Boston rail fall and duett desk, bran new, only $96
$400 Pianos, well made, suitable for teachrs or schools, neat but plain cases, $226
$450 Pianos—finest grade for finest trade. Boston fall duett desk, latest improvements. Light or dark mahogany, walnut or English oak. Double veneer on hard wood. Hand cased or moquetry panels $258
$500 Pianos, largest size, same description as above $289 to $294
$425 Pianos, with "Harp Attachments," all latest improvement $248

TERMS—$25 cash and $10 per month buys any piano in the wareroom; $20 cash and $8 per month buys many of them. Stools and Scarfs will be furnished at cost price, as follows: Best stools, 1.50; Finest Scarfs, 2.00.

If interested, call early bargains, af this sale lasts TEN DAYS, and NO LONGER.

WOODWARD-WARREN COMPANY.

At the Academy of Music Five Nights Next Week.

The Woodward-Warren Company, headed by that ever popular and deserving comedian, Guy Woodward, will begin an engagement of five nights next Tuesday at the Academy of Music.

While Mr. Woodward has always carried a very strong supporting company, this season he has tried to excel all former ones by carefully selecting each member, for their respective abilities and being especially adapted for the class of plays to be used. Histrionic ability alone was not the object, but to get a company of combined actors and specialty artists was indeed an arduous task. But how well he has succeeded is best attested from the fact that while each member plays a most acceptable role, they also take part in the specialty program, which is an augmented one.

Monday night Joseph Clifton's great new dramatic success entitled "Myrtle Ferns" will be the bill offered, and one that will prove thoroughly satisfactory to all who attend the performance. The plot is composed of comedy, romance and pathos, three of the most potent factors for an interesting play. And when it is to be presented with all of the necessary scenery and other accessories to make the detail accurate, the production should be a perfect one.

As is the usual custom with this organization, ladies will be admitted free Monday night if accompanied by one paid 35 cent ticket.

The sale of seats will open today at Fariss' drug store.

Mr. Britt Married.

W. E. Britt, a well known and popular traveling salesman, was united in marriage at Richmond yesterday to Miss Imogene L. Bascom, a charming young lady of that place. The happy couple took supper at Clegg's hotel last night and left on No. 35 for Jacksonville, Fla., where they will reside. Mr. Britt has many friends here who extend congratulations and best wishes.

We can hardly blame you for not coming in through the mud and dirt we have had, but you will make up for lost time now that our cement pavement is complete. Prices lower than ever too. Fishblate-Katz Co.

Don't think because we have advertised and talked about men's $3 50 and $3 00 shoes so much lately that we don't sell cheaper ones. We would like to show you our McKay sewed Vici Kid shoes, full leather lined, made on the new English and London lasts and sold at $2 25. You will wonder how such an excellent wearing and good looking shoe can be sold for such a price. If you want the best winter tan shoe ever put on the market for $2.25, our Hamilton-Brown Shoe Co.'s "Lawson" shoe will fill the bill, and we have a black Box Calf shoe for the same price that is a hummer.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

John A. Young went up to Winston this afternoon.

A. P. Gilbert came in a noon from a business trip to Salisbury.

John W. Harrison, of Winston, was in the city at noon to-day.

Prof J. Allen Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute, was in the city today.

Miss Garland, of High Point, visited in Greensboro yesterday afternoon

Joe Black, a prominent horse dealer of Danville, spent the forenoon in the city and returned home on No. 36.

J. D. Lee, mail agent between Greensboro and Wilkesboro, returned today from a visit to his mother at Norwood.

No. 76, the northbound fast mail, passed here today in two sections, the first arriving on time and the second at 1:25.

No new cases of smallpox are reported at Terra Cotta, though there is one suspect near Guilford Battle Ground.

The colored A. & M. College folks observed yesterday as Arbor Day and set out 40 or 50 trees, mostly in the orchard.

A called meeting of the Altar Guild of St. Barnabas church will be held at the residence of Mr. Ellett, Forbis street, Monday afternoon at half past three o'clock.

Dr. E. W. Smith will preach in the court house tomorrow night a special sermon to young men, the second sermon on the text, "Is the young man Absalom safe?" The public is cordially invited.

A. L. Grover, managing salesman for the Singer Manufacturing Company, this morning rented rooms in the Townsend building, on South Elm street, and will open an office there about December 15th.

The friends of Mr. Chas. R. Abbott, A. H. S. attached to the 3rd Calvary of U. S. A. now stationed near Manila P. I, will be sorry to hear that he has been very ill with malarial fever. But he was improving at the date of his last better. Oct. 22nd.

W. C. T. U. RECEPTION.

Enjoyable Affair Last Night, Despite the Inclement Weather.

The reception given by the W. C. T. U. at Grace church last night was most enjoyable, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

Scripture lesson was read by Rev T. M. Johnson, followed by prayer by Rev. C E. Hodgin.

Prof. Mebane was then fittingly introduced by Mrs Mary E. Cartland, the state president of the W. C. T. U. We forbear to quote from Prof. Mebane's address, as we will at an early day produce it in full. It is well known that he is a public official of clean character, who is not afraid to express his views in favor of temperance, and the W. C. T. U. find in him strong support in trying to have scientific temperance taught in our public schools.

At the conclusion Prof. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute, made a few remarks, as did also Prof. Blair and J. R. Mendenhall.

After the beautiful music rendered by Miss Weatherly and Messrs. Blount and White, the audience was invited to the Sunday School room, where refreshments were served and an hour or so spent most pleasantly.

Notice Lightbearers.

There will be a meeting of the Light Bearers at Centenary church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are requested to meet promptly.

We are just a little torn up in front but you can get into our place with dry feet and when you are in the money you will save will overpay your trouble.

AT GUILFORD COLLEGE.

The Philagorean Society Ladies to Give an Entertainment.

Correspondence Telegram

There will be an entertainment given here Saturday night by the ladies of the Philagorean society. The ladies have arranged a play for the evening and, needless to say, have spared no pains in making it a success. After the entertainment refreshments will be served. Everything will be conducted in the best possible manner. As for the small-pox (if there be any) no one need fear Guilford any more than Greensboro, as it is no nearer to it than Greensboro is, or not so near. We hope to have a crowd from Greensboro, and feel sure they will be more than paid for the inconvenience—if we may call it such.

Admission, 15 cents.

The regular Thanksgiving services were held in the meeting house today by James R. Jones.
